		approximately US$ 2.00/each. All written material is screened for contents. • Vehicles approx. 170% and upwards.
Books, CD's, audiotapes, computer disks		Books, CD's, audiotapes, computer disks have to be inspected by the Ministry of Culture prior to release (allow 01 week for clearance). All items should be packed separately noting the quantity of each "type" on the carton and packing list. Undesirable material, publications mentioning/referring to Vietnam will be confiscated.	Cultural items guideline: If Cultural items are packed in less than 20 small boxes (30x30x50 cm) the check is made by Customs officials and is usually easy. If Cultural items are >20 small boxes, an official from the Ministry of Culture must be called and a cultural inspection fee paid (can be time consuming and costly).
Laser colour printers and colour copiers		Laser colour printers and colour copiers will be inspected by the Department of Communication and a separate license will be issued for registration of installation.	Up to 01 colour/laser printer can be imported without a license. Subsequent printers will require a special license. If you have laser colour printers, please mark clearly its details on the packing list.
Electrical items		Each family is allowed to bring in one type of each electrical item.	All electronic items must have the brand name, model, and serial number detailed on the packing list.
Food		Canned food in limited quantity, for personal use	Please get the advice from your agent before sending out the food.
